

West Side and City Suburban

IN THEIR NEW QUARTERS.

West Side Wheelmen Take Possession of Their Home.

The rejuvenated West Side Wheelmen yesterday enjoyed the first time the comforts of their new club house on Jackson street. During last week the workmen were busy furnishing the apartments with carpets and stoves for the several rooms. The house has been thoroughly cleaned and repapered. Yesterday the club had its first club run. Moscow was reached and dinner taken at the Central hotel.

The club bids fair to become a leading social factor on this side. Entrance to membership is most strict and the promoters are not worrying over expenses. The entrance fee now is ten dollars.

LAST OF THE SERIES.

The Chi Upsilon society of the Washburn street church terminates its series of winter meetings this evening. At the close of the regular business meeting the members and invited guests will be entertained with a literary and musical programme. This society is composed of a majority of the young people of the church and has had a very successful career since its inception. In all probability it will continue again next fall with renewed vigor in its commendable work of fostering the church spirit among the younger members.

CHARLES HELLRING BURIED.

The funeral services of the late Charles Hellring were held at the family residence, 1910 Price street, yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance of friends of the family and the floral tributes were very fine. Rev. M. H. Mills, pastor of St. David's Episcopal church, preached a sermon which was in keeping with the young man's life. Interment was made at the Washburn street cemetery. Following were the pallbearers: Charles Henry, John McDermott, Joseph McHale, Michael Maher, Fred Roth, Joseph Walters.

SAID HE WAS ROBBED.

Two women and one man were arrested last evening by Patrolman Hart about 8:45 o'clock. The three were intoxicated and creating a disturbance upon Ninth near Robinson street. The man, who is a stone mason employed by Tom Minietta, of Scranton street, claimed that the two women had robbed him of two dollars and he wanted it back. The women are Nellie Connors and Mamie Brown and denied the allegation. They were all placed in the station house and will receive a hearing this morning.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hon. W. G. Ward, of North Sumner avenue, who has been seriously ill at his residence for some time, is very much improved. Miss Abbie Hancock, of Eynon street, has returned from a visit at Milton, Pa. Contractor W. B. Williams, of South Main avenue, made a business trip to Binghamton, N. Y., Saturday. Joseph Walters, of Fairview avenue, who was badly injured in the Mount Pleasant mines on Thursday last, is reported as being very ill. He was removed to the Lackawanna hospital and Eugene Fellows, son of Captain Eugene Fellows, of this side, has gone to West Point to be ready for an examination for entrance to the institution. Gene is alternate to Andrew W. Smith, of Waverly, and is corporal of Company F, Thirtieth regiment.

Daniel Williams, of North Sumner avenue, has returned from a visit in Pittsville. Rev. Benjamin Jones, of Wisconsin, Pa., who has been visiting friends on the West Side, returned home Friday. Rev. Mr. Jones assisted at the wedding ceremony of Miss Mary J. Davis and Dr. Thomas J. Jenkins, of Albany, N. Y., on Wednesday last.

David Stephens, of the West Side, was tenor soloist at the Presbyterian church in Shamokin yesterday. Miss Minnie Overfield, of Meshoppen, who has been visiting friends on the West Side, returned home Friday. Rev. Mr. Jones assisted at the wedding ceremony of Miss Mary J. Davis and Dr. Thomas J. Jenkins, of Albany, N. Y., on Wednesday last.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The funeral services of the late George Stelling, of 1910 Price street, will be held at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made at Washburn street cemetery. The ladies of the Plymouth Congregational church will serve supper at the church parlors on Tuesday evening next from 5:30 to 7 o'clock. Following supper ice cream and cake will be served.

The Ladies' society of the St. David's Episcopal church will hold a sociable in the school rooms of the church next Tuesday evening. Ice cream, cake and coffee will be served. The excursion to Lake Ariel of the Calvary Baptist church of Taylor leaves the Taylor station tomorrow morning at 7:45 o'clock. A "through trip" will be made to and from the lake.

The first quarterly conference meeting of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will occur this evening at the church. Rev. J. G. Eckman, presiding elder, will be presiding officer. A very enjoyable affair was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Reilly, on Friday evening. The evening was spent in many pleasant ways. A quartette composed of Messrs. Edward Stanton, John Gaughan, Thomas Gilroy and Conrad Coleman sang several selections. At a seasonable hour refreshments were served.

GREEN RIDGE.

Professor H. L. Burdick, E. L. Barger and C. T. Bellamy were fishing in Gouldsboro Saturday. The Epworth League special which was to have been held this evening in the parlors of the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church has been postponed until Monday, June 21. Miss May Clifford, of Penn avenue, has gone to Boston to visit her sister, Nina, who is attending the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Dr. C. W. Treverton, of Sanderson avenue, is entertaining his mother at Beach Lake. Mrs. R. F. Dorick spent Sunday with relatives in Wilkes-Barre. Harry Davis, of New York city, is spending a few days in the Ridge.

PROVIDENCE.

James Williams, of Wayne avenue, is suffering from a severe attack of tonsillitis. Charles Pedrick, of Oliphant, called on friends here yesterday.

Announcement is made of the coming marriage of Edward P. Schlyer, Miss T. P. Gray, both of this city. The event to take place June 23, at the home of Miss Gray's parents, 1241 North Main avenue.

David J. Hughes, of Wayne avenue, is visiting relatives in this city. Mrs. George Mabey, of the Bristol house, called on friends in Honesdale last Saturday.

The Oliphant Athletics were defeated yesterday afternoon by the Eureka, of the North End, by a score of 6 to 7. The game was void of interest, save for the excellent second base playing of Gallagher, of the Eureka, and the pitching of Frank Reagan, who went into the box in the sixth inning, struck out ten of the Athletics during the remainder of the game.

Thomas Lewis, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Thomas Watkins, of Wales street, leaves this morning for Audenreid.

John Evans, of Schultzville, is visiting relatives in this city. Frederick White, of Brick avenue, who was severely injured in the Cuyuga mine, is recovering slowly from the effects of his injuries.

Saturday evening Lieutenant Spelling, on the premises of Patrick Donohy, on Beech street, set fire to the wooden covering of the structure Saturday afternoon. An alarm was sounded but the flames were extinguished without the aid of the fire companies.

MINOOKA.

The aggregation which makes up the representative team of this place ran up against the rejuvenated West Side Harmonies yesterday afternoon on Coyne's grounds. The home team had the game well in hand until the sixth inning, when the visitors began to solve the delivery of O'Neill, and caused the home team to go to pieces. O'Neill pitched good, steady ball, but the work of the infield was the poorest seen on the home grounds this season, and caused the hopes of admirers of the great national game to drop with a sickening thud. A nine of school boys would undoubtedly make a better showing.

Yesterday's contest is a sample of what they are in the habit of doing it will be well for Manager Judge to provide new remedies for the players. The home team was defeated by the score of 13 to 7. James Lovry officiated as umpire.

P. L. Coyne, of Kingston, spent yesterday with friends here. The Berry Wall Bicycle club made its initial trip to the Alligator City yesterday.

The remains of an infant child of Mrs. John Mahedy, of West Minooka, were interred in Minooka Catholic cemetery yesterday afternoon.

Frank Jennings and James Graham, of Edwardsville, were visitors in town Sunday.

Manager M. F. Judge, of the Minooka team, is on a still hunt for new material to replace the fellows who are doing the dirty playing.

OBITUARY.

Sister M. Antoinette died at St. Cecilia's academy Saturday night at 11 o'clock. She had been an invalid for over three years. She was 44 years of age, and had been a religious nun for twenty-one years. In the world she was Cecilia Lannon and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Lannon, of Forest Lake, Susquehanna county. She entered the convent of St. Paul's in Carbondale in 1876, and after a novitiate of two years was received into the order, being assigned to St. Cecilia's in this city, where she spent part of her life as a nun was spent.

She was a time Sister Superior at the convent in St. Paul's parish, Green Ridge, and also had charge of the school of St. Patrick's orphanage for a brief period about four years ago. Her health, which had been failing, broke down about this time, and she was compelled to give up all work. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning from St. Peter's cathedral. Interment will be made in the Sisters' plot in Hyde Park cemetery.

Mrs. McHale, of Dundaff street, one of the oldest citizens of Carbondale, passed away suddenly Saturday morning. Mrs. McHale lived with her son, Officer John McHale, and excepting for a slight cold has been in her usual health. What was her return from his duties early in the morning. She asked her if there was anything she needed before he went to bed. She asked for a drink of tea thinking it might relieve her cough. A few hours later a neighbor who came in to help her found her lying on the floor dead. Her death was probably due to heart failure. Mrs. McHale was born in Ireland and was seventy-five years old. She has been a resident of this county fifty-five years. Two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Harte, of Mayfield, Mrs. Thomas Coleman of this city, and one son, John McHale, mourn her loss. The funeral will take place Monday at 3:15 p. m. Interment in St. Rose cemetery.

John Sands Anderson, who died at the residence of his brother, W. H. Anderson, Saturday morning, June 12, was born in LeRoy, N. Y., Nov. 11, 1828. In 1891 he removed to Scranton and obtained employment on the engineer corps of the Delaware and Hudson Canal company. He retained this position till last fall, when falling health compelled his confinement to the house. He leaves a large circle of friends who sincerely mourn his departure. He is survived by his brother and a sister, Mrs. Charlotte Maish. The funeral services will be held at his late residence, 2036 North Main avenue, on Tuesday afternoon, June 15, at 2 o'clock.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Foster, the beloved wife of John Foster, of Brook street, will take place this afternoon from St. Mark's church at 2:30 o'clock.

The death of Mrs. Foster has cast a deep gloom over the community in which she resided. Five weeks ago she contracted a cold which developed into pneumonia. All that medical skill could do was done to save her life, but without success, and she gradually sank until her death, which occurred Friday night at 9:30 o'clock. Deceased was just 60. The time of her life, being but a little over 24 years of age. She is survived by a husband and three children, aged 4 years, 2 years and an infant five weeks old. Interment will be made in Dunmore cemetery. Mr. Foster himself has but recently arisen from a sick bed, having been ill all winter with typhoid pneumonia.

EXCURSIONS TO MOUNTAIN PARK.

Dates on Which Scranton People Will Take a Day Off. Among the bookings made for excursions to Mountain Park this season thus far the following will be Scranton days: Bauer's band, June 15; Scranton Athletic club, June 17; North End Welsh Congregational church, July 9; Division No. 20, Ancient Order of Hibernians, July 15; Turners, July 19; Division No. 14, Ancient Order of Hibernians, August 7; Plumbers, August 14; the general temperance day, August 30; and on September 8, the Providence Social club will hold forth. The park this year is just as popular as ever before, and its eighty-nine dates have been taken by parties through the Wyoming and Lackawanna valleys.

TWO BURGLARIES REPORTED.

They Occurred During the Early Hours of Saturday. Two burglaries were reported to the police Saturday as having occurred the previous night. The places visited were H. J. Klases's tailoring establishment, 333 Washington avenue and L. Fieldman's shoe store on Penn avenue where about $50 in money was secured. It is the second time the place has been burglarized within a few weeks.

In Klases's tailor shop three suits of clothing, a pair of trousers, a vest and a quantity of cloth, all to the value of about $200 were taken. An entrance was effected through a door in the rear of the shop which was left unfastened.

SPARKS FROM AN OUT DOOR BAKE OVEN.

On July 19 the congregation of St. John's Catholic church will conduct an excursion to Lake Ariel.

The following committee is in charge of the excursion of the Scranton Athletic club to Mountain Park next Thursday: J. Robinson, C. P. Armstrong, Charles Weber, F. W. Kieffer, W. Budenbach, H. Roehrick, Charles Sohn, Henry Myles, Lon Keller, August Barr, Adolph Hammen, Will Huester, John Kiefer, F. Miller and Will Fink.

Sparks from an out door bake oven on the premises of Patrick Donohy, of Beech street, set fire to the wooden covering of the structure Saturday afternoon. An alarm was sounded but the flames were extinguished without the aid of the fire companies.

Parasols vs. Umbrellas...

Tears and Sunshine have been jumbled up so badly this season that it's difficult to tell which you want most.

Of Course

A Parasol is one of these sort of full dress adjuncts that a woman can ill afford to do without, and for that reason, even if Old Sol never showed his face for two consecutive hours all summer, Parasols would still be in good demand.

The Pretty Ones

Are here for your choosing, China Silks, Taffeta Silks, etc., etc. Whites lead, but there are colors and tints innumerable, if your taste leads that way. The get-up of these Parasols is absolutely correct. As Usual--Prices Lower Than Elsewhere.

UMBRELLAS

The regular storm protectors aren't much sought for these days, but some people insist on having them, and you can, if you so wish it. Fancy Umbrellas are most in demand, though, Two Tone Silks, Plain Colors, Blacks, Whites or even Sun Umbrellas.

Fancy Sticks

In fantastic ways, or Dresden knobs, or silver and gold mounts. The fact is, umbrella handles are
